‘A PRAYER VIGIL’

A prayer service offering Chicago residents the opportunity to come together as a community to remember the victims of the recent Japan tragedy and reflect on how to move forward.

Congressman Rush and Members of his Advisory Council on Asian Affairs will sponsor the Community Prayer Service. It will provide an opportunity for the entire community, which has been emotionally impacted by the tragedy, to hear messages of reflection, healing and hope. Speakers will include Congressman & Pastor Bobby L. Rush, Consul General of Japan George Hisaeda and Deputy Consul General Hironori Sawada

Speakers will also focus on how families of the victims can heal from the tragedy and renew a hopeful community spirit.
